Academic Sprints

Calling All Teachers!

Participate in the spring Study Island Contest!

Edmentum's Academic Sprints, featuring Study Island, challenges students to earn as many unique Study Island Blue Ribbons as possible during a one-week span in March. Help our students master the state standards with rigorous practice and review, while they compete to win great prizes!

Our school is registered to compete from: (Circle one of the following weeks)

March 9 - March 15, 2015

March 16 - March 22, 2015

Students can log into StudyIsland.com at school or at home using their individual login information and begin working on class assignments. For every score of 70% or more earned on an assignment, a student will be awarded a Blue Ribbon, representing mastery of that concept.

Win Great Prizes!

The school that earns the highest average number of Blue Ribbons per student will win $1,000 in Edmentum credit to provide more great learning solutions for our students!

One school winner per grade span—elementary, middle, and high school

The student who earns the most Blue Ribbons will win a $100 Amazon.com gift card!

One student winner per grade span—elementary, middle, and high school
