Question 1 .

I Love Mac and Cheese

by Diane Tran

I love to eat Macaroni and Cheese.
It's creamy and much much better than peas.
I thread a Mac on each spike of a fork,

Only that alone can please my tummy.

Two Mice

Their names were Hop and Skip.
"My dear," Hop said, "I really think we ought to take a trip."

"Whatever for?" said sleepy Skip,
"I do not like the sea."
He poured a cup and drank it up,
as calm as he could be.

so she just stared at Skip instead,
until he said, "All right."

Question 3 .

Peter, Go Play!

"Peter, you have been reading all morning," said Dad. "You really should take a break from your book and go spend some time with your friends. It is really nice outside."

"OK, Dad. I just need to finish this chapter," replied Peter from behind his book.

Dad sighed. "OK Peter, but just five minutes."

Peter breathed a sigh of relief and went back to reading his book.

Before he knew it, he heard Mom call, "Peter, its lunchtime. Time to put the book down and take a break from reading. Charley and Steve are outside working on the treehouse. I think Zoe is coming over to help. It might be a good idea to join them."

"I know, Mom, but this is the best part of the entire book. I am going to find out where the secret tunnel goes. I only need to go a few more pages."

"I never thought I'd see the day where I actually wanted you to put down a book and play, Peter," Mom mused. "Read while you eat, but as soon as lunch is finished, you need to go out and get some exercise."

Peter glanced up at Mom. "Sure thing, Mom."

An hour went by, and when Mom and Dad came back into the kitchen, there was Peter slowly chewing the last bite of sandwich.

Mom and Dad looked at each other. Then they looked at Peter.

"OK Peter, it is time to take a break from reading. We understand that you are very excited about your book, but it is important to get some exercise and spend time with friends," Mom said.

"Your book will be here when you are done," stated Dad. "Now go see what Charley and Steve are up to. Zoe just arrived, and it looks like they are working on a rope ladder."

"Alright," stated Peter with a grin. "You win. But as soon as it gets dark, I am coming back in to finish my book." He then walked out the door.

Question 4 .

I have a secret. A really good, juicy, have-to-tell-your-friends kind of secret, but I cannot tell anyone. My parents do not even know.

I am a spy.

It sounds silly, but it is true. I am a third grade student at Whitcomb Elementary. I am an okay student. I like math and social studies a lot. I am not as good at science or reading. And I help the United States stop criminals on the weekends.

Last weekend, for example, I was playing outside with my friends. Johnny and Waleed rode their bikes to my house. Amber and Patricia walked over, and we started running around outside.

"Let's play tag, Michael!" Amber said.

"What kind of tag?" I asked. "I like freeze tag the best!"

"Yes, but you have to be it," said Johnny.

Waleed nodded. "You chose, so you are it."

Just then, I heard a beeping. It was my computer. I told them to hold the game, and I raced inside.

"You've got spy-mail!" my computer said. It was from the President. He needed my help again. Tag would have to wait.

- B. You've got spy mail!
- C. Yes, but you have to be it.

Sometimes I got the feeling that Coach Brooks didn't really want me on the team. He would always start the bigger, faster, stronger, meaner kids ahead of me. Guys like Chuckie, Jim, or Marcus. I guess heart didn't matter all that much to him. Nevertheless, I still felt very proud of putting on that black and red football uniform, the very uniform I had dreamed of wearing ever since I was in third grade.

But one day all that would change. We were down 21-14 to the Jackson High Generals, with only two minutes left to go in the 4th quarter. Suddenly, Coach Brooks called my name.

"Speirs! Get out there and hit somebody!"

I put on my helmet. My time had come.

- A. Jim
- B. Chuckie
- C. Speirs
- D. Marcus

Question 6 .

Doris's favorite song, "Sunshine Superman," played on the radio. She wanted to turn it up, but George, her father, scolded her.

"I can't drive and focus when the music is too loud," he said.

George Jr., her younger brother, said, "No one wants to hear those old, foggy songs, Doris."

"No one is asking you, Georgie," she said back.

George Jr. and his friend Anthony started making fun of Doris. "Doris, the Boris is bor-ing!" they chanted.

Doris calmly turned to the two of them. She emptied her giant cup of soda on each of them. They started to scream. George went to pull over to the side of the road. Doris turned up the song just in time to hear the ending. She sat dancing in her seat.

Question 7 .

Keeping Pets Warm

When it gets cold outside, people wear warmer clothes. They might wear an extra sweater under their jackets. Toasty mittens or gloves will keep their fingers warm. When it gets cold, it is important to make sure pets stay warm too.

Dogs should be brought inside when the temperature drops. Dogs that have very short hair might need a doggy sweater. Doggy sweaters can often be purchased at a pet store. Another way to keep a dog comfortable is to put a few blankets in a cozy, warm place.

Cats should also be brought inside. They can be kept warm with blankets too. Cats also like to sleep in sunny spots. Open a curtain to let a little bit of warm sunlight in, and watch the cat relax in the sun.

Pets that live in cages, like mice or hamsters need to keep warm too. Be sure to give them extra cage filling. Add more newspaper shreds or woodchips to their cages than usual. They will cover themselves to keep warm.

Pets are a part of the family. Don't forget to keep them warm!

"I only know how to play solitaire," said David.

"I can teach you how to play 21 if you're interested," said Heather, "But I don't really know how to play anything else."

"I have an idea," Charles said, "Why don't we use the cards and build a house?"

"You can't build a house out of cards," David replied, "Cards are made out of paper."

"I bet you I can make a two story house out of the cards," Charles responded.

"Okay, if you build a house of those cards, I will walk your dog for a week," he replied "But you can't cheat."

Susan said, "I can't wait to see this."

Charles went on to stack the cards against each other, making a roof, a base, and walls out of queens, kings, and jacks.
